Grafton Senior Center.

December Meeting Notes

President's welcome at 7:35 PM

Treasurer's report:

1. presented account balance and recent transactions;
3. treasurer is continuing to collect dues and issue 2018 membership cards;
4. current membership is roughly 43 members

Field Condition:

Cold and snow covered!

Old business: There was no old business to discuss.

New business:

1. Cost savings to reduce the maintenance costs for annual lawn tractor service were suggested.
2. Cost savings suggestions regarding insurance were discussed.
3. Jim Hendrikson received a flyer/brochure from Russ Knetson regarding the R/C Model Engines Collector Association. You may recall that Russ Knetson was one of the club members who was instrumental in finding the club a flying field at the Wisconsin Electric Power Company ash landfill. The brochure was offered to anyone interested. Gary Keup was interested!
4. Plans for the 2018 Astrowings FunFly were discussed.

Show and Tell:

1. Jim Hendrikson brought in his new Horizon Hobby Inductrix FPV micro quadcopter with video camera. It has three flying modes: 1) horizon mode to hold elevation, 2) beginner, and 3) acrobatic/expert. Jim also had a small video receiver and monitor that receives the video feed from the micro quadcopter.
2. Steve Tarney also brought in a micro quadcopter to fly.

Meeting adjourned at 8:26 PM
